1. Overall idea

The ceo and directors board of COGG have organized an art contest. All members of the Central Omni Galactic Group are able to participate.

The overall idea is to show your love for COGG by making a propaganda artwork piece. It should be whatever you like to create, from funny, inspirational, motivating, etc. It could be a real-world drawing, but it can also be something made with Photoshop/another editing program.

2. Timeframe

The event will take place in November 2017. The duration will be the entire month of November.

3. Promotion campaign

Eve.pics will be featuring the artwork contest in one of its articles. The propaganda contest winner can be interviewed and the interview can be placed on eve.pics.
